CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser; the auctioneer reserving to himself the right of refusing the bidding of any person he pleases; and should any dispute arise between bidders, the lot or lots to be put up again and re-sold or not as the auctioneer may decide, and he is to be the sole arbitrator in all matters of dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s. at each bidding; above two pounds, 2s. 6d.; above five pounds, 5s., and so on in proportion; and no bidding to be retracted.

THIRD.—The purchasers are (if required) to pay down immediately a deposit of five shillings in the pound, or such other sum as the auctioneer may name, in part payment, each deposit to be applicable to all or any lots purchased, and give in their names and places of abode, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be forfeited, and be at the disposal of the auctioneer.

FOURTH.—The lots, which are sold with all faults, are to be taken away at the purchaser's expense within two days of the termination of the auction (Messrs. Foster not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of any lot), and the remainder of the purchase-money to be paid before the delivery. In cases where a buyer purchases more than one lot, the whole of the account of all the lots purchased is to be paid for before any one lot is delivered.

FIFTH.—But should any purchaser or purchasers obtain their lot or lots, and by any neglect or evasion omit paying for the same, such purchaser or purchasers shall pay interest on the amount of the said purchase, and WAREHOUSE CHARGES, from the day of sale until the amount of the said bill shall be discharged.

LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with these conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited, the lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold, either by public sale or private contract, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong solely to the vendor.
